

Outside

A masterpiece of architectural styling

Combining imagination and craftsmanship, this magnificent home defines the summit of your aspirations. Dramatic rooflines and stylish low-maintenance siding unite grace with practicality. A step-up front porch, detailed columns and charming window shutter accents add character. The optional rear deck and screened porch create the indoor/outdoor ambiance you've always longed for. And who can resist the expansive rear yard for endless hours of fun with family and friends?

Inside

Exquisitely detailed, lavishly appointed

Enter the elegant foyer and take in the refined touches that accent this beautiful home. This floorplan was clearly designed for the way you live, a home obviously planned to please. A spacious formal dining room, richly appointed in high-trim wainscoting, draws admiration from every vantage point. To your left, a stylish double-door entry opens into the living room or optional study (choose the optional cherry built-ins to add warmth and more character). You'll also delight to the many thoughtful touches—like the centrally located, private formal powder room.

Continue on to the cheery breakfast nook, perfect for informal meals. Then turn and behold the fully appointed gourmet kitchen, where family and friends so often gather. Here, you'll delight to easy-care, eco-friendly countertops, EnergyStar appliances and a large walk-in pantry. The expansive family room draws you to its warm fireplace. Add the optional coffered ceiling for a dramatic touch, or the optional built-in bookcase/entertainment center for functional beauty. The family foyer with breadboard paneling, cubbies, and enormous walk-in closet are conveniently located just off the two-car garage.

The upper level was uniquely designed to exceed your expectations. Here, four impressive bedrooms and three full baths accommodate you family's every need. One auxiliary bedroom even features a spacious walk-in-closet. The generously appointed baths include designer tile and low-flow WaterSense plumbing fixtures--extras you'll appreciate for years to come. An enclosed upstairs laundry adds step-saving convenience. The lavish master suite features two large double windows and presents his "his" and "hers" walk-in-closets. At day's end, the secluded master bath offers a private retreat richly accented in imported tile, a lavish relaxing tub with separate shower—plus “his” and “hers” vanities accented in easy-care, eco-friendly countertops. Choose the optional master bath and pamper yourself in a huge Jacuzzi tub with a spa-like ambiance.

The lower level is sure to bring out the designer in you. Versatile options let you create a recreation room to accommodate your favorite hobby, throw an informal party, or add a pool table and bar. If yours is a big family with lots of visitors, you can also add a spare bedroom and full bath. There's even a full room behind the stairwell that you can turn into an exercise gym or media room. The only limit is your imagination.
